WELCOME TO HI-TEC OILS TOOWOOMBA SPEEDWAY

Happy new year to you all. Welcome to what we hope becomes the first of many Red Hot Summer Shootouts at Hi-Tec Oils Toowoomba Speedway. This weekend, the very best drivers from Australia will take on a number of American's that we are extremely lucky to have here in town. Massive thanks to all the teams and drivers for coming to support our event.

We will pay out close to $70,000 in prize money this weekend as part of the Clay-Per-View Red Hot Summer Shootout powered by Cush Clothing. There's prize money on the Night 1 feature race, along with over $50,000 in prize money in the Saturday night main event including $20,000 to the lucky winner.

Obviously, we are shattered that Sheldon Haudenschild couldn't be here this weekend. Everyone here at Toowoomba, along with Jack Lee Racing did absolutely everything possible to get him to Toowoomba. Unfortunately, this time round it just couldn't happen, and we are sincerely sorry to all the fans that are disappointed. We will work Sheldon to make sure we do get him back to Toowoomba in the future.

We are however very excited to welcome back into the field Aaron Reutzel for this event. Aaron won the last World Series Sprintcar round that was held here in Toowoomba and remains as a feature race still talked about. Aaron will be joined by fellow American's Justin Sanders, Carson Macedo and Cole Macedo giving us four drivers from the United States.

Taking on the American's are a host of superstars from all over Australia including Aussie Champion Marcus Dumesney, Lockie McHugh, Jamie Veal, Steven Lines, Brooke Tatnell, Jock Goodyer, Ian Madsen, Ben Atkinson Jnr, Brock Hallett, Luke Oldfield, Matt Dumesny, Sam Walsh and Jessie Attard just to name a few. Other Queensland regulars like Cody Maroske, Ryan Newton, Jy Corbet, Taylor Prosser, Kevin Titman, Randy Morgan, Karl Hoffmans and Brent Kratzmann are all capable of causing an upset on the home turf.

What an occasion it is for Toowoomba trio Nic Whell, Tarhlea Apelt and Anthony Lambert to all race on such a big stage here their local venue.

The format this weekend is exciting as we revert back to 2 rounds of heat both nights. There will be a preliminary feature on night 1, with a further 2 heats on the second night, before a C Main, B Main, Gold, Silver & Bronze Shootout and a 40 lap Main event.

Also on the program this weekend is a barn storming field of 39 Wingless Sprints for the Wildink King of the Ring. There's over $8,000 in prize money up grabs in the Wingless this weekend including $2,000 to the winner. Good luck to all the drivers and thanks for your support. Over 20 Formula 500's will also do battle this weekend for the High Bank Shootout paying $1,000 to win. This years event is being presented by RP Contracting and Mainstreme Automotive. There's also 15 Junior Formula 500's contesting the final two rounds (sponsored by Excavation Equipment) of the Summer Series presented by Kyogle Tilt Tray and Aero6Four Racing Products. We are all looking forward to seeing how young New Zealand champion Jack Brownlees goes against the likes of Kobi Wright, Charlie Bowen and Cooper Norman who continue to dominate Junior Formula 500 racing.

Thanks again to everyone that's made this weekend possible and thank you to all the fans that are here this weekend. We truly appreciate your support. Your support means we can keep on putting big events together for the Toowoomba region.

We have engaged a 3rd party company to complete a comprehensive economic impact study this weekend. If you purchased tickets at the gate, please keep an eye out for the QR code / website that you can visit to provide some important data about your stay or visit to this event. Online ticket holders will receive an email after this event that we encourage you all to complete the short survey. This information will allow us to show the financial impact Speedway and this event brings to this region which will assist us provide accurate data to local government and council for future funding requests.

Anyway, it's time to sit back and enjoy this weekend's show!
